

A Level Geography - Summer Independent Learning

Part 1 - NEA

To COMPLETE and HAND IN - Literature Review, Introduction, Methodology, Risk Assessment and ALL data presentation (must include at least 3 complex skills)

- Complex skills can include – beach transects, kite diagrams, detailed annotated photographs (x3), choropleth maps, located proportional symbols, flow line maps, ArcGIS located, map overlays, soundscapes, wordless
- Approximately 5 different techniques must be demonstrated

Part 2

Produce a detailed essay plan for each of the essays below. Your assessment in the first week back will involve a timed essay on ONE of the essay titles below. (There will be no choice)

- Evaluate the human responses of resilience, mitigation, and adaption in one coastal area you have studied. (20)
- Place making processes depend largely on the actions of community groups. To what extent do you agree with this statement? (20)
- Discuss how well the hazards associated with tropical storms can be managed (20)