Task 6 – Tort Law Exam Questions

In order to prepare for your first couple of assessments in September below are some sample scenario / essay questions that you can complete to give you a head start for the assessments. Complete these please make sure they are full answers.

Essay on Tort Law:

Discuss the extent to which the law on negligence is fit for purpose (20)

Scenario on Tort Law:

Louise decided to take her daughter Aubree (15 months) to the Yorkshire Wildlife Park. Louise buys them a seasonal pass at the entrance and they start their journey round the park. As she is pushing the pram around she trips up over a tree root that is sticking up near the footpath. She hurts her ankle. After resting on it for an hour she is eating a picnic on the grass. Aubree needs changing so she takes her to the ladies toilets. When finished Louise washes her hands but is scolded when the tap is far too hot. When she goes to complain at reception she is told that the toilets have recently been refurbished by a national company 'toiletsRUs' as they were outdated. The worker tells Louise that it only reopened this morning and she is likely to be the first person to have used it.

Advise whether Louise will be able to claim under Occupiers Liability (20)

Please bring all your DIL tasks to your first lesson in September 😊
